

Lord of the dance

I danced in the morning when the world was begun,
I danced in the moon in the stars and the sun,
I came down from heaven and I danced on earth,
at Bethlehem I had my birth.

Ref.:

Dance, dance wherever you may be,

I am the Lord of the dance, said he,
and I'll lead you all where ever you
may be,

and I lead you all in the dance said
he.

I danced for the scribe and the pharisee,
they would not dance, they wouldn't follow me
So I danced for the fishermen, James and John came with me and the dance went on.

I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame;
the holy people they said it was a shame.
They wipped and they stripped and they hung me high,
left me there on a cross to die.

I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black;
it's hard to dance- with the devil in your back.
they buried my body they thought I'd gone;
but I am the dance, and I still go on

They cut me down but I leapt up high;
I am the life that'll never, never die,
and I'll live in you if you'll live in me,
I am the Lord of the dance, said he.
